

Arctic HEATX RoofTabs

Company: XYNYTH Manufacturing Corp.

Booth 422

Arctic HEATX RoofTabs™ use the power of HEAT to keep you and other safe from falling ice. It quickly melts the ice preventing ice dams and clearing drains, avoiding costly damage and repairs.

- Effective to -31°C (-25°F)
- Generates Heat on contact
- Easy to Use
- Prevents Damages and Repairs
- Perfect for those hard to reach areas

www.xynyth.com/products-tabs/AH/Arctic-heat.html

Aspen10 and Wintersense

Company: Campbell Scientific

Booth 1007

The Aspen™10 Internet of Things (IoT) Edge Device, coupled with the Wintersense, enhances and complements the capabilities of your Road Weather Information Systems (RWIS) to help manage maintenance resources for preventing traffic accidents and potential life-threatening situations.

www.campbellsci.com/wintersense-sdi12-aspen10

NORTH AMERICAN
SNOW
CONFERENCE 2024

The Snow Depth Sensor

Company: Frost Solutions

Booth 826

The Frost Solutions Snow Depth Sensor monitors and records snow, ice and water depth, allowing for remote monitoring and configurable alerts. Take the guesswork out of winter weather and flood management!

frostsolutions.io

Vue Vision

Company: Vue Robotics

Booth 522

Vue Vision is a proprietary AI-weather model that analyzes pixel level data to identify changing weather conditions, including precipitation and snow accumulation. Real time notifications are then sent to users which can be customized to meet their unique operational reporting needs.

Vue Vision was built using millions of self-collected HDR images and weather observations which powers the company's computer vision models for monitoring inclement weather conditions and other environmental changes.

www.vuevision.ai

NORTH AMERICAN
SNOW
CONFERENCE 2024